We help those with autism live fuller lives and we enable families to cope with the disorder so that they can see beyond to a brighter future. In addition to running BeyondAutism Schools, BeyondAutism also offers outreach, training and consultancy services.

About BeyondAutism Early Years Provision

BeyondAutism have developed a new, innovative service to engage with families at the earliest point of their child's life. We use the latest research and evidence from ABA/VB practice, delivered by a multidisciplinary team. Our developmentally informed, parent led workshops supported by professionals, will be organised to address engagement, communication and play using the Early Years curriculum, Development Matters and the Early Years Denver Model. During a session parents will have the opportunity to spend some time together, creating a supportive peer group.
